

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

WEDNESDAY, May 14, 1884.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Clerk's Sale.—W. H. Kerr, Clerk.
To Teachers and School Trustees.
John Boyd and Others.
County Convention.—T. W. Woodward, County Chairman.

Local Notes.

—Jim Coleman, the negro murderer in Columbia, was hanged on Friday.
—Several persons in Winnsboro are contemplating a visit to Ireland at an early day.

—Mr. Boag's new hall now, in the process of erection, will probably be called "The Academy of Music."

—The farmers have been making good use of the recent fine weather, and much work has been accomplished.

—The Supreme Court has recently decided that the homestead exemption is not good against a distress warrant for rent.

—Sam'l. D. Pant's is the place to buy Cooking and Heating Stoves, Tinware, etc. Call on him, as he will not be undersold.

—The Normal Institute for white teachers this year will be held at Spartanburg, and that for colored teachers at Orangeburg.

—There are one hundred and seventy-five hands employed in the granite quarries in Fairfield county and a monthly payment of $5,000.

—If you want any Stove Pipe Sam'l. D. Pant will sell it for the next thirty days at twenty cents per joint of two feet. Sizes from three to six inches.

—Dr. James Boyce, of Dixie West, and Dr. B. Lathan, of Yorkville, will leave during this month for Belfast, Ireland, to attend the meeting of the Pan-Presbyterian Council.

—General Manigault found no company to inspect at Chester. It is not easy to maintain such an organization in a small town, and Winnsboro is fortunate in having so fine an one as the Gordon Light Infantry.

—The firemen's tournament in Columbia on the 17th of June promises to be a fine thing in every respect. Our Steam Fire Engine Company ought to go down and compete for some of the prizes.

—Messrs. R. J. McCauley & Co. are selling the celebrated Eclipse and Atlas Engines. All parties will save money by giving them a call before buying elsewhere.

—The selection of Major E. C. McLure to deliver the oration before the next annual meeting of the survivors of the Sixth Regiment, gives general satisfaction. The subject of his address will be, "The Old Sixth in Virginia."

—Mr. F. W. Habenicht has our thanks for several glasses of splendid lemonade. Mr. Habenicht's lemonades are exceptionally fine this season, and our friends will find it cooling and refreshing to give him frequent calls in the warm weather.

—We shall be greatly obliged to the secretaries of the different Democratic Clubs, if they will promptly furnish us, for publication, the proceedings of their respective Clubs, under the call just made by the County Executive Committee.

—Call at the office of R. J. McCauley & Co. and leave your order for the Waynesboro "Eclipse" Grain Separator, the best grain sower in the market.

—A. M. Mackey, Esq., formerly a member of the Winnsboro bar, is now in a law firm of Crittenden & Mackey in Washington, D. C. Mr. Mackey promises to do well at the National Capital. He has our best wishes for success in his new home.

—Do your own printing with the Rubber Printing Stamps, manufactured by Sam'l. D. Pant. Call and see samples of work.

—We desire to call special attention to the meeting of the County Board of Examiners on next Saturday. The teachers and school trustees are earnestly requested to be present, and we hope all of them will be on hand at the hour and place designated.

—Now is the time to give us your orders for the Osborne Reaper or the Osborne Twine Binding Harvester. These are the best harvesting machines made. Sold by Mar 20* R. J. McCauley & Co.

—The Greenville News says: "The Greenville race track is bare so far, the known entries to date being: Congress 6, Senate 1, Legislature 6, Register 6, Senate 2, Solicitor 2, Auditor 2, Judge of Probate and County Commissioners, 1 each. But it will fill up."

—WANTED!—Ten Thousand Dollars worth of County Claims, for which the cash will be paid.

T. W. LAUDERDALE.

—This Fourth District.—The Washington correspondent of the News and Courier says: "Representative Evelyn desires it understood in his district that under no circumstances will he consent to run again for Congress."

PERSONAL.—Senator M. C. Butler paid a short visit to Major Thos. W. Woodward at Rockton on the 2nd inst. The Senator quietly passed through Winnsboro on Saturday on his way to Washington.

TEACHERS' MEETING.—A meeting of the teachers of the county has been appointed for next Saturday, the 17th inst., in the Court House at eleven o'clock. Several addresses will be delivered, and probably Prof. Jones, of the South Carolina College, will speak upon that occasion. Every teacher in the county, male and female, should endeavor to be present.

KEAT FOR THE WEARY.—A large majority of the merchants of Winnsboro have signed an agreement to close their respective places of business at six o'clock, in the course of two or three weeks. This agreement will go into effect on the first day of June and will continue until the first day of September next. The clerks are to be congratulated upon their good fortune and the merchants are due the thanks of the town for their kindness and thoughtfulness to their employees.

A SERIOUS CUT.—On last Saturday morning Solomon Barber received a severe cut on his face by Thomas Goode, which very nearly severed his nose from his face. As usual it was the result of a quarrel and a fight between parties. The blow was inflicted with a sharp board and is severe and painful. The cases of assault and battery with intent to kill have been of remarkable frequency in Fairfield county during the present year, and nothing but speedy trials and vigorous prosecutions will check the passions and impulses of men.

SUPPLEMENT TO MAURY'S GEOGRAPHICAL.—We are in receipt of a copy of the proposed supplement to Maury's Revised Manual of Geography, which was prepared purposely for South Carolina. It contains several clear, accurate maps of the State, besides a full, complete and comprehensive treatise upon the general geography and resources of the State. This supplement makes Maury's Geography complete in all its parts, and we don't hesitate to commend the work to the favorable attention and consideration of all lovers of education.

A SEVERE HAIL STORM.—A report from Blackstock tells of a very severe and destructive hail storm in the northeastern portion of the county on last Sunday. The work of the storm began at four o'clock in the afternoon, and although it lasted but a half hour, it proved very destructive to the oats and grain crops upon the plantations of Messrs. Edward P. Mobley and James Jones, and a number of other farms in the immediate neighborhood. The hailstones were unusually large, and the planters are "blue" over the effects of Sunday's work. Fairfield has had her share of storms and cyclones for one year certainly.

A SHOOTING AFFRAY.—A difficulty occurred between John Green and Isaac Porcher, both colored men living in this place, on Saturday last, near the residence of Mr. G. W. Crawford on Congress street. Strong drink possibly had something to do with originating the difficulty, and when they met angry words were exchanged, a quarrel ensued and Porcher dealt Green a severe blow in his eye. Green thereupon slipped back into his yard, procured a pistol, returned and fired twice at his assailant without effect. Porcher sheltering himself behind the walls of an adjoining house. A warrant has been issued for John Green's arrest on the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. He has not yet been apprehended, and it is likely that he has fled the country.

SERIOUSLY STABBED.—An unfortunate difficulty occurred at White Oak on Saturday, the 3d inst., in which Mr. John L. Cameron was very seriously injured by Mr. Ed. Neil. The exact origin and all the circumstances of the affair are not definitely to us. A quarrel, however, began between the parties named and hot words brought on blows, and in the hand to hand encounter Mr. Cameron received eight or ten cuts on the arms and in his side. The friends of Mr. Neil state that his part of the unfortunate affair was merely in self-defense—that Mr. Cameron brought on the fight, and had just before the cutting drawn his pistol on Mr. Neil. This statement is denied by the friends and sympathizers of Mr. Cameron. The latest intelligence from White Oak justifies the statement that Mr. Cameron is still in a critical condition, but hopes are entertained of his recovery.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PLENO.—The Presbyterian Sunday School will have a picnic at Rock City on next Friday, the 16th inst. All the other Sunday Schools in town are invited to join in and take part in the pleasures of the occasion. We have it upon authority that a special train will leave the passenger depot here at nine o'clock sharp on Friday morning and will return to Winnsboro late in the afternoon. Arrangements have been made to take all the Sunday School scholars to Rock City free of charge, while all other parties attending will be charged fifty cents for the round trip. Tickets can be had from Mr. J. M. Beatty. The ladies are requested to have the baskets at the passenger depot by 8.30 Friday morning. The novelty of going to Rock City and the special train feature will contribute much to the general enjoyment of the children, and sufficient preparations have been made to insure a good time for the young people. Our readers shall hear more of the Sunday School picnic.

THE FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—The fight in this Congressional District is growing more interesting and exciting with the developments of each day. Six candidates are already in the field and perhaps still others will be added with the fever for Congress about honors and the number may yet grow larger. With so many worthy aspirants before the public it is difficult indeed to forebode the probable action of the convention in the premises. In this connection the name of the Hon. Henry A. Gaillard, of this place, was recently suggested in these columns by a writer over the signature of "Fairfield." In the article in question the public career of Senator Gaillard was admirably and happily set forth, and his eminent fitness for the position argued with a fervency and eloquence alike creditable to the author and his subject. It is sufficient to say that the nomination and the reasons in support of it meet our hearty endorsement, and we believe that not only his personal friends at home and abroad, but all of those who have watched and appreciated his career in the General Assembly will labor to secure for him the nomination.

FRANK LESLIE'S SUNDAY MAGAZINE.—The brilliant June number closes the fifteenth volume, and the claim of this periodical to public appreciation must, we think, be universally recognized. It is admirably conducted by its talented and popular editor, T. De Witt Talmage, D. D., who has in this number two most interesting articles, "The Resurrection" and "Hard on Others," and also a sermon "The Sword Sheathed in Flowers." There are articles (most of them beautifully illustrated) by the Rev. George T. Alder, Alvan S. Southworth, G. A. Davis, Alfreton Horvey, J. Alex. Patten, etc., etc. The serial and short stories, sketches, etc., afford pleasant and edifying reading. Many excellent poems are contributed by the Rev. G. A. Waddell, Amanda E. Dennis and others; the miscellaneous articles are entertaining and instructive, and the illustrations are profuse and in the best style of art. The price is 25 cents a number, or $2.50 a year, postpaid. Address, Mrs. FRANK LESLIE, Publisher, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

HELP THE FATHERLESS.—The harder the year, the greater the sufferings of the poor, the more urgent are the appeals to charitable institutions for aid. The Thornwell Orphanage is unendowed. It depends, day by day, for support on the gifts of those who have a heart to feel for the sufferings of others. There are now in the Orphanage at Clinton over forty inmates. They are clothed, fed and carefully taught and trained in useful industries, are protected and aided, and when able to care for themselves, are helped to secure good situations. All this is accomplished at an expense of about $5 a month for each orphan.—Would you be the helper of the fatherless, for a whole month caring for one of these children, send your five dollars to "The Thornwell Orphanage," Clinton, S. C. The gift of a barrel of rice or flour or of molasses would be the very way to feed these orphans from your own farm. And now is the best time to do it. For just now the institution is passing through trying times and appeals to the friends of the fatherless for aid.

Send your gifts by postal order on Laurens C. H. to the Rev. W. P. Jacobs, Clinton, S. C.

THE INSPECTION.—On Tuesday afternoon, the 6th inst., the Gordon Light Infantry assembled in rear of the Town Hall, and pursuant to appointment the company was soon in readiness for the annual inspection by the Adjutant and Inspector General. General Manigault, arrived on the north-bound train on Tuesday evening and the inspection began promptly at 5.30 o'clock. Something over forty members of the company were in ranks, and the soldierly bearing of the Gordons and the splendid parade of the company were admirable indeed. After the usual inspection of arms and accoutrements, General Manigault spoke briefly to the company, congratulating the members upon their marked improvement since his last official visit here. He said that he had not hesitated to offer criticism last year and was happy to bear witness to the fact that his observations had borne fruit. He said further that he would take the occasion to say that upon his official tour during the present year he had seen no company that presented a better general appearance or was better equipped and trained than the Gordon Light Infantry. In conclusion, he congratulated Captain Jordan for having under his command a company, the peer of any in the State. Representing Capt. Jordan and in behalf of the company Col. Rion thanked the General for his marked courtesy and kind words of encouragement, and promised a greater efficiency for the Gordon Light Infantry in future. General Manigault left on Wednesday for Chester.

OPENING THE CAMPAIGN.

Meeting of the Democratic County Executive Committee.—The County Convention called.

The Democratic County Executive Committee met in the Town Hall on Saturday morning last, Major T. W. Woodward, County Chairman, presiding.

The following Clubs were represented by the gentlemen named: Feasterville—J. K. Stevenson; Salem—D. A. Milling; White Oak—S. R. Johnston; Winnsboro—Jno. S. Reynolds; Young Men's Club (Winnsboro)—Chas. A. Douglas; Ridgeway—J. R. Thomas; Cedar Creek—J. A. Tucker; Greenbrier—Win. R. Rabb; Jenkinsville—C. B. Douglas; Jackson's Creek—J. E. Ellison; Longtown—D. W. Tidwell.

The Chairman stated that the object of the meeting was to arrange for the reorganization of the party for the approaching campaign.

Mr. C. A. Douglass offered the following resolution:
Resolved, That the County Chairman be, and he is hereby, requested, to call a Convention of the Democratic party of Fairfield county, to be held at Winnsboro on Saturday, June 21, at eleven o'clock, a. m.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Reynolds offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:
Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed, to prepare, and submit to the next County Convention, a new constitution for the government of the Democratic party in Fairfield.

The object of this resolution, it was stated, is to make certain the laws by which the party is to be guided. The present constitution has undergone considerable changes at different times, and doubts have sometimes arisen as to what is of force, and what is not. The Committee think it best to make a fresh start for the coming campaign.

Mr. Reynolds offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:
Resolved, That the secretary of this Committee be, and he is hereby, instructed to prepare, and submit to the next County Convention, a statement of his receipts and disbursements of the fund raised to defray the expenses of defending citizens of Fairfield county, charged with violations of the Federal election laws.

Mr. W. R. Rabb moved that Mr. S. R. Johnston take the chair, and then offered the following resolutions:
Resolved, That this Committee desire to record their high appreciation of the patriotic and effective services rendered by Major T. W. Woodward, the County Chairman, during his term of office, now about to expire.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Committee be, and they are hereby, tendered to the County Chairman for the uniform courtesy and consideration that have characterized his official intercourse with this body.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in THE NEWS AND HERALD.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

After an informal discussion of political matters in the county, the Committee adjourned.

HONORING THE DEAD.

Memorial Exercises in Winnsboro.—Floods of light to Gallant Confederate Soldiers who Died for their Country.

In pursuance of the programme published in THE NEWS AND HERALD of Thursday last, suitable exercises were held here on Friday last. It was intended to have the ceremonies on Saturday—Memorial Day—but it was deemed best, for several reasons, to have them on Friday afternoon. The procession was formed, in charge of Col. Jas. H. Rion as Chief Marshal, on the corner of Zion and Washington streets. Headed by the Citizens' Cornet Band, the Gordon Light Infantry following as an escort, the column moved to the Court House, where a speakers' stand had been arranged. Here, too, a memorial column of wood, covered with white cloth, had been erected, and at its base were flowers and evergreens in tasteful profusion. On the sides of the shaft were four young ladies whose fathers had served in the Confederate Army—Misses Lizette Gerig, Floride Dwight, Nannie Phinney and Mollie McMaster.

The exercises were opened with a beautiful and appropriate prayer by the Rev. John T. Chalmers, of the Associate Reformed Church.

Col. Rion next introduced Dr. R. B. Hanahan—Surgeon of Hagood's Brigade—who, attired in the Confederate gray coat that had known the war, read, with fine effect, Father Ryan's poem, "Sentinel Songs," beginning—
"When sinks the soldier brave
Dead at the foot of a wall
The poet sings, and guards his grave
With Sentinels of Song."

Col. Rion now introduced, as the orator of the occasion, Capt. H. A. Gaillard—promising with the statement, in justice to Captain Gaillard, that it was only a very short time before the ceremonies that he had been requested, to take the place of Major Woodward, who was unavoidably prevented from being present.

Captain Gaillard delivered, ex tempore, a short but touching and eloquent address, in which he paid a beautiful tribute to the dead soldiers of Fairfield, and urged the duty of perpetuating their memory. In the course of his remarks he called over the different commands in which Fairfield had furnished soldiers good and true. These commands are—
2nd Regiment, S. C. Volunteers.
6th Regiment, S. C. Volunteers.
12th Regiment, S. C. Volunteers.
15th Regiment, S. C. Volunteers.
17th Regiment, S. C. Volunteers.
3rd Battalion, S. C. Volunteers.
7th Battalion, Enfield Rifles.
1st Regiment, Cavalry.
2nd Regiment, Cavalry.
6th Regiment, Cavalry.
7th Regiment, Cavalry.
4th Regiment, Cavalry.
1st Artillery, Regulars.
2nd Infantry, Regulars.
Confederate Batteries.

As the name of each command was called, a beautiful wreath, containing that name, was hung upon the pure white shaft.

Captain Gaillard's address was listened to with marked attention and was warmly applauded. At its conclusion the exercises were closed with the benediction by the Rev. Dr. E. Jordan, of the Presbyterian church.

The different committees of ladies, with many accompanying them, now repaired to the several graveyards, and there laid flowers on the graves of all the dead who had served in the armies of the Confederacy.

This was the first formal recognition of Memorial Day in Winnsboro. We trust that the custom so auspiciously begun may be observed for all time—the custom of paying tribute to the memory of brave men who sacrificed all for their country.

—In this connection, we are pleased to state that a society has been formed for the purpose of raising funds to be contributed towards the building of the Confederate Home in Richmond.

Already contributions have been made, and it is expected that the good people of the entire county will unite in swelling Fairfield's contribution to the good cause.

ITEMS FROM FEASTERVILLE.

—Mumps are still operating to the detriment of our schools.

—We regret to learn of the death from pneumonia, on the 30th ult., of Mrs. Lawrence Feaster, wife of the Cornor's esteemed citizen of that name. Mrs. Feaster leaves a husband and several children to mourn her untimely departure, all of whom have the tenderest sympathies of a host of friends.

—Rogues seem particularly active in the vicinity of Mr. Wm. Yongue's, near Buckhead. Last winter this gentleman's horse was stolen; subsequently a lot of cattle; and we now learn that three of his cows were recently stolen from his lot the same night. Strong suspicions are said to rest upon certain parties.

—We regret to chronicle the death, on the 1st inst., from pneumonia, of Mr. Nathan Simpson, aged about thirty-five years. Mr. Simpson is reported by those that know him well to have been a gentleman of fine judgment, industrious habits, and amiable qualities. He leaves a wife, one child and many friends to mourn his loss.

—Mr. J. B. Crosby has returned from Texas, and will probably remain here until the opening of the fall trade, when he may return to engage in buying cotton. The heavy grain crop of Texas did not invite the importation of cereal products into that State. Under the stimulus of the next crop, which it is hoped may be one of those necessitating the building of larger barns, we trust that his business here may revive sufficiently to retain him in our midst.

OBITUARY.

DIED, at her home in Winnsboro, S. C., April 26th, 1884, Miss SHERA M. HENDRIX, in her 21st year.

Weep not for your departed dead—She is not dead, but sleepeth.

Though the body is now cold and lifeless, her spirit is a shining light in that beautiful world above, where suffering is no more. Let us say, then, with sweet submission, "Thy will be done." Her sufferings are over, and she has gone where there is light and peace forevermore.

RANDOM RECOLLECTIONS.

[From the Columbia Register.]

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 10, 1884. We have seen, with pleasure, that Edwin J. Scott, Esq., of our city, is about to publish his book, which he has appropriately called "Random Recollections of a Long Life." Mr. Scott did us the honor to submit, at different times, his manuscript to our perusal, and while some of us did not read all the manuscript, it affords us great pleasure to say that we have read enough of the "Recollections" to say that it is not only interesting in style and narrative, filled as it is with local history and anecdotes, but will be really valuable in preserving facts of a public nature which should be preserved, and which will soon otherwise pass away and be forgotten. When we recall the fact that this is the work of a man over eighty years of age, we think it a very remarkable production.
